I. WEBSITE COOKIES POLICY

I.1 USING GUIDE FOR SETTING COOKIES POLICY SECTION AND BANNER NOTICE ABOUT ITS USE

Since the amendment of the Article 22 of the LSSI (April 2012) the holder of a Spanish web domain that uses cookies must:

- insert into the menu of the website a section on ' Cookies Policy'.
- alert the users who access to the website about the use of the cookies.

1º, insert into the menu of the website a section on ' Cookies Policy':

To finish drawing up the Cookies Policy document and post it on the site, the holder of the domain (in reality, the web master) should review and complete the column 'Purpose' of cookies on the table that is at the end of the document. The possible values of cookies on the Purpose are: 'Required', 'Functional' or 'Advertising and third party cookies':.

- a. Required Cookies are cookies strictly necessary such as those that serve for proper navigation or to allow payment for goods or services requested by the user, or cookies that serve to ensure that the content of the web page loads effectively services.
- b. Functional cookies (analytical) are cookies that allow us to analyze the use of the Site, so that we can measure and improve performance.
- c. Advertising and Third Party cookies are used by social networks, or external plug-in content as well as Google maps cookies advertising companies to publish ads relevant to their interests.

It is also recommended to check the expiration date of cookies; information which DGE DATA consultants have defined according to the own characteristics of the cookies views on the website.

2º, Alert the users who access to the website about the use of cookies.:

Very important on cookies policy: As modified by the LSSI (April 2012), the user must consent the cookies policy used by the website, so when a user accesses on our site he must receive a warning message about the cookies policy (usually is a fixed pop up, banner in the header, etc.) through which users are informed that our site uses cookies..

The referred text of 'warning notice' could be:

'Please note that we use own and third party cookies to offer a better service, according to your browsing habits. If you continue browsing, we consider that you accept their use. You can read our Cookies Policy here https://begrph.net/legal/cookies\_eng.pdf

You can see examples of configuring these 'warnings' in the following link:: www.dqe.es (if not appeared warning banner at the website header of www.dqe.es you may delete stored cookies from the browser menu to force his re activation

I.2 COOKIES POLICY —

Domain www.begraph.net uses automatic collection procedures (cookies) in order to gather personal information such as the browser type or operating system, reference page, path, domain ISP (Internet Service Provider), etc. all in order to improve the services provided. Cookies help us to tailor this website to your personal needs.

A "Cookie" is a small file that is stored on the user's computer and allows us to recognize it. The set of "cookies" help us to improve the quality of our website, allowing us to personalize each user browsing through our website. Cookies are now essential to the functioning of Internet, providing many advantages in delivering interactive services, navigation and usability of our website.

Please note that cookies cannot damage your computer and if they are activated then they help us to identify and resolve errors and improve the navigability of our website.

Types of cookies:

For more information about typology and use of cookies we inform you:

I. Taking into account the duration of the cookie (the time that the cookie is active in our hardware) we can differentiate the following cookies:

- a. Session Cookies: These are temporary cookies that remain in the cookie file of your browser until you leave the site; these cookies are not recorded on the hard drive of the user. The information collected by these cookies is used to analyze traffic patterns on the website. Ultimately, this allows us to provide a better experience to improve the content and improve usability.
- b. Permanent cookies: These are stored on the hard drive and our website reads them every time you make a return visit. A permanent cookie has a specific expiration date. The cookie will stop working after that date. We use them generally to facilitate the purchase and registration services.

II. Taking into account the use of cookies we can distinguish between:

- a. Required Cookies: are cookies strictly necessary such as those that serve for proper navigation or to allow payment for goods or services requested by the user, or cookies that serve to ensure that the content of the web page loads effectively services.

Within the category of required cookies you can also find cookies for the following purposes:

- To allow communication between the user equipment and the network.
- To provide a service explicitly requested by the user.

In both cases we inform you that the information and the user's consent to the installation of the referred cookies are mandatory. Specifically, according to the Working Group of Experts from the EU, Article 29 of its opinion 4/20123, it has interpreted the exception among those cookies would aim to:

- ✓ "User access" cookies
- ✓ Cookies for authentication or user identification (session only)
- ✓ User security cookies
- ✓ Cookies to login media player

- ✓ session cookies for load balancing
  - ✓ Cookies to customize the user interface
  - ✓ Complement -cookies (plug-in) to share social content.

For other Required Cookies which are not included in the above cases, the prior information and the user consent are required.

- b. Functional Cookies: These are cookies that help the user to have a better experience of navigating the site. An example of using this type of cookies are those used to store the browsing data of a particular language.
- c. Analytical Cookies: are cookies that allow us to analyze the use of the Site, so that we can measure and improve performance.
- d. Advertising and Third Party cookies: Those used by social networks, or external plug-in content as well as Google maps cookies, advertising companies to publish relevant ads to their interests.

NEXT LIMIT ALPHA, S.L. keeps all the information collected through cookies in a non-customized format (IP address). This type of information obtained through cookies will not be disclosed outside of NEXT LIMIT ALPHA, S.L., neither for unsolicited communications.

Appropriate privacy and cookie management:

If the user wanted to, the registration of cookies may be subject to its acceptance during the installation or update of browser used. The user may at any time revoke its acceptance by the configuration options of contents and privacy available in each browser. However, if the user does not permit the installation of cookies on the browser it may be unable to access to some sections of our website.

For more information about the appropriate configuration of cookies and activation options, restriction and or disable them, you should check the help section of your browser to learn more:
